KLEW-TV October 2007 – December 2007

- 1. The Need to Address Traffic Issues.
- 2. The Need to Address Hunger/Poverty Issues.
- 3. The Need to Address Nez Perce Tribal Issues.
- 4. The Need to Address Lack of Parenting.
- 5. The Need to Address City Planning.

Vickie Storey, City of Clarkston Clerk/Treasurer, was interviewed on 10/16/07.

Barney Metz, Lewiston Orchards Irrigation Dist. Manager, was interviewed on 10/11/07.

Connie Granbois, Community Action Partnership Manager, was interviewed on 10/12/07.

John Morbeck, Clarkston Police Officer, was interviewed on 10/9/07.

Jenny Zorens, North-central Idaho Area Agency on Aging Director, was interviewed on 10/31/07.

KLEW-TV

Issues/Programs List October 2007 – December 2007

The Need to Address Traffic Issues

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/8/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:45

Description: KLEW News reported that a public meeting today at Moscow City Hall discussed the current location of the Moscow Farmer's Market. For the last 2 weeks the vendors set up on Main Street near Friendship Square. Traffic flow going toward highway 95 is one of the biggest concerns. The vehicle traffic flow that surrounds the market needs to have safe pedestrian and bicycle zones so people have safe access to the market.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/15/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:25

Description: KLEW News reported that the heat is on for interchange improvements at the Fleshman Way Highway 129 interchange. Consultants, engineers and County Public Works Director Joel Ristau met with commissioners this morning. Ristau says any alternative that we evaluate needs to take care of those left-turn traffic problems. The planning study identified either shifting those turning movements onto the state route or taking a roundabout type configuration.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/15/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:43

Description: KLEW News reported that Avista crews are replacing the power poles and putting in new conductor wire from 16th to 19th avenue that will divert traffic on 21st street in Lewiston. The right hand lane of the three-block stretch will be closed for at least the next three weeks, as Avista work continues.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/19/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:20

Description: KLEW News reported that the Asotin County Board of Commissioners held a public hearing this morning on the six-year transportation improvement plan. They talked about 12 roads and bridges that need attention. Topping the list is the Fleshman Way State Route 129 interchange.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/28/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:07

Description: KLEW News reported that traffic on the Interstate Bridge was delayed up to fifteen minutes at a time while the Washington State Department of Transportation did some routine work.

The Need to Address Nez Perce Tribal Issues

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/3/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:10

Description: KLEW News reported on the 8th annual Distinguished American Indian Speaker Series at the University of Idaho. At 7PM the college will host presenter and demonstrator Jenny Williams. Rodney Frey, Director American Indian Studies says they'll be focusing on the traditional art of cornhusk weaving.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/16/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:29

Description: KLEW News reported that Idaho and Coeur d'Alene Tribal officials have reached an agreement on fuel tax collections. Governor Butch Otter signed the pact today and Tribal Chairman Chief Allan. It resolves a long dispute over who gets the money from gasoline sold at reservation stores.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/22/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:28

Description: KLEW News reported that it's been a roller coaster of a year for Lapwai Head Start. On October 10th they had to move the kids out of their building because of problems there. A lot of renovation work had to be done, which sparked a move to four Early Head Start classrooms. They had to rearrange the entire Early Head Start and Head Start programs so the children could return to school.

Program: Northwest Morning Date/Time: 11/29/07 8:25 a.m.

Duration: 5:00

Description: Northwest Morning show host Keith Havens interviewed Judy Wohlert, Nez Perce National Historical Park Interpreter, about the upcoming Annual Beadwork Bazaar in Spalding, Idaho. Nez Perce traditional items will be displayed at the bazaar including beadwork, artwork, blankets and leatherwork.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/30/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:48

Description: KLEW News reported that Governor Butch Otter and officials from the Nez Perce and Kootenai Tribes reached agreements on the collection and allocation of motor fuel taxes. The two tribes joined two others in resolving the issue.

The Need to Address Lack of Parenting

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/16/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:41

Description: KLEW News reported that LCSC is getting kids to read and according to one national organization, "First Book", they're the best in the country. The goal is getting books into the hands of low-income students. From June 1st – August 30th First Book LCSC gave nearly $6,000 in books and book grants to literacy programs.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/18/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:19

Description: KLEW News reported that Children's Mental Health Council has paired up with the Juvenile Justice Council to discuss mental health in children. The council meetings try to bring some education to our area for anti-stigma to let people know that there are issues out there and that they can be helped and dealt with but as a community we need to do it together.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/23/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:18

Description: KLEW News reported that the national organization Head Start celebrates National Head Start day. Head Start is having an Open House day inviting the community to see what they do in early childhood education. Head Start serves kids ages 0-5 and it's a free program for low-income families and offers lunch and a snack every day.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/27/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:09

Description: KLEW News reported that at the Nez Perce County Commission meeting commissioners voted to accept state money for kids in the Region 2 juvenile detention center in Lewiston. Court Services Director John Triplett says the state has the ability, and now the incentive, to help youth in the individual counties. There's been a continued problem with substance abuse and mental health services for years.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/29/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:36

Description: KLEW News reported that two local mentoring programs received big cash awards today. The Mighty Mentors and the Giant Killers have each received five thousand dollars. Washington's Lieutenant Governor was on-hand to award the funds. He says mentoring plays a valuable role in every child's life.

The Need to Address City Planning

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 10/9/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:19

Description: KLEW News reported that the Clarkston City Council decided to limit the time to 15 minutes for presentations and 3 minutes for any public comment in response to several 30-40 minute presentations in the past month.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/20/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:52

Description: KLEW News reported that Lewiston city and county officials discussed solid waste in a joint meeting at City Hall. It's over a 32-year old agreement that's causing some confusion between city and county officials. In 1975 the city and county agreed to collect and ship their solid waste to Asotin County. With the growth of Lewiston, officials say now the city is covering about 92 percent of solid waste. A subcommittee will now meet and provide a recommendation for the group.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/27/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:43

Description: KLEW News reported that Clarkston City Council members decided to not increase property taxes. They also adopted next year's budget and approved 2008 Emergency Medical Services contracts. There was also the first reading of the ordinance to impose a point three percent sales tax. The Public Safety committee briefly discussed what it would be doing to look into some city cat problems.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/27/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:44

Description: KLEW News reported that at the Lewiston City Council meeting the initial construction on Jackson Baldwin Falls would begin soon. Jackson Baldwin Falls will be a beautification project that would greet visitors coming into Lewiston off the Memorial Bridge.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 12/3/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:27

Description: KLEW News reported that at the Asotin County Commissioners meeting today Clearwire was given approval to add an antenna to an existing communications tower at Lincoln Middle School. This will provide better service to the Clarkston Heights. $50,000 of existing road funds were approved for additional guardrails on Asotin Creek Road.

The Need to Address Hunger/Poverty Issues

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/6/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:09

Description: KLEW News reported that Community Action Partnership, with the help from government funding, is working to keep people warm this winter. The federal program is income qualifying. They are seeing about 50 people a day come through the door hoping that they can get assistance.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/16/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:15

Description: KLEW News reported that Lewiston Rotary Club has teamed up with the Salvation Army to keep those in need, warm this winter with the "Coats For Families" program. They have given away over a thousand coats to date and will have another 500 coats to give away Saturday morning to everyone that needs a coat.

Program: KLEW-TV News

Date/Time: 11/20/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:52

Description: KLEW News reported that Beamers Hells Canyon Tours is collecting food for the Community Action Partnership. Jill Koch from Beamers Hells Canyon Tours says it's a charity initiative to support the Community Action Partnership and a unique way for the community to help us out and collect some food. Last year they collected 800 pounds of food and would like to double that this year.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 11/21/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 1:28

Description: KLEW News reported that Largent's Inc. came up with a plan to donate a percentage of every sale over $398 dollars between October 12th and last Saturday to the two local food banks. Largent's is just shy of 2 thousand dollars where they can donate half to Community Action Partnership and half to Idaho Food Bank.

Program: KLEW-TV News Date/Time: 12/3/07, 6:00 p.m.

Duration: 0:27

Description: KLEW News reported one of the many good causes here in the valley is Toys for Tots. Organizers are gearing up to give away thousands of toys this holiday season and are collecting toys for children ages 0-15 age group. Toys for Tots has collected about 400 toys in the last two weekends but needs a lot more.